This research aimed to:1) to know whether by order product costing procedure in CV. Rimba Sentosa has been appropriate to the theory, 2) to know whether there were differences between by order product cost conducted by CV. Rimba Sentosa and the one according to the theory. The gathering data techniques that was used were documentation technique and interview. To answer the first problem, the researcher compared by order product costing procedure conducted by the company to the relevant theory, whereas to answer the second problem, the researcher compared the company product cost to the one according to the theory.

The result of this research showed that:1) the by order product costing procedure conducted by the company was not surely appropriate to the theory, because the company included the indirect materials cost into the raw materials cost and the company did not make a factory overhead cost budget and did not cost the factory overhead cost into the by order product cost counting, 2) there were differences between the product cost by the company and the one according to the theory.

Penelitian ini bertujuan untuk: 1) mengetahui apakah prosedur penentuan harga pokok produk pesanan pada CV. Rimba Sentosa sudah sesuai dengan kajian teori, 2) mengetahui apakah ada perbedaan antara harga pokok produk pesanan menurut CV. Rimba Sentosa dengan teori. Teknik pengumpulan data yang digunakan adalah teknik dokumentasi dan wawancara. Untuk menjawab rumusan masalah yang pertama, penulis membandingkan antara prosedur penentuan harga pokok produk menurut CV. Rimba Sentosa dengan teori, sedangkan untuk menjawab rumusan masalah ke dua penulis membandingkan antara harga pokok produk menurut perusahaan dengan teori.

Hasil penelitian menunjukkan bahwa: 1) prosedur penentuan harga pokok produk menurut perusahaan tidak sepenuhnya sesuai dengan kajian teori, hal ini disebabkan perusahaan menggabungkan biaya bahan penolong ke dalam biaya bahan baku dan perusahaan tidak membuat anggaran biaya overhead pabrik dan tidak membebankan biaya overhead pabrik ke dalam perhitungan harga pokok produk pesanan, 2) harga pokok produk menurut perusahaan berbeda dengan teori.
