The Indonesian National police's Detachment 88 anti-terrorism squad (Densus 88) in co-operation with West Nusa Tenggara's [NTB] administration have successfully managed to arrest five alleged terrorists in Bima, NTB. The spokesperson of the National Police [Polri], Rikwanto, said that the action was the follow up of the previous incidence (Densus 88 operation, 30-31 October) where two alleged terrorists were shot dead.

He also said that the operation had something to do with the incidence in Bima where an unknown armed group attacked and killed two members of Bima regency police (Chief Brigadier Zaenal and Chief Brigadier Abdul Ghofur) in September 2017.

Quoted by Kiblat.net Wednesday (on 01 November), he mentioned the names of the five alleged terrorists. He also said that all of them were from the same village, Mpunda, Bima, NTB.

According to him, they have admitted for having involved in the killing of two police officers in front of a public school, SMKN 2, Bima, last September.

He further said that they all had, indeed, attended the "military" training conducted by Bima Jemaah Ansharut Daulah (JAD) network. [The network is strongly believed to be affiliated with the East Indonesia Mujahidin (MIT), a terrorist network in Poso, Central Sulawesi.]
