In the aftermath of the Indonesian House of Representatives' (DPR) rectifying Perppu [the government regulation in lieu of a law] No. 2/2017 on mass organizations as law, the former spokesperson of HTI [the Indonesian Hizbut Tahrir], Ismail Yusanto, has revealed the next steps to take. He said that one important action to do was to file a judicial review against the very new law with the Constitutional Court.

According to him, however, he will have to, first of all, wait for the follow up the judicial review he had previously filed against Perppu No. 2/2017 with the very same court.

"We will also consul again with our lawyer Yusril Mahendra about (all of these issues)," he said, adding that Yusril Mahendra had just told him that the previous one had been automatically aborted since the object of the case [i.e. Perppu No. 2/2017] was not there anymore [it has been rectified as law].

"Let's see now what the judge of the Constitutional Court would say about all of these issues," said Ismail Yusanto.
