

Indonesian Fundamentalists: Watch Out Black Power in Presidential Elections

[Antonius Herujiyanto AH0408-020818]

The so-called Ulemas and Muslim activists united under the National Movement to Safeguard the Ulema Fatwa (GNPF) have declared their Ijtima or agreement, appointing two ulema, namely, the Prosperous Justice Party (PKS) advisory board chairman Salim Segaf al-Jufri and popular preacher cleric Abdul Somad Batubara (UAS) to be Prabowo's running mate in the 2019 presidential race.

[It was a surprise to them, however, that finally, Prabowo chose Sandiaga Uno (the vice-general chairperson of Prabowo's Gerindra Party) as his running mate in 2019 Presidential elections.]

The Prabowo coalition comprises the Gerindra, the Prosperous Justice Party (PKS), the National Mandate Party (PAN) and the Democratic Party.

In the meantime, the GNPF spread up their campaign that the so-called black power with their evil souls would never stay silent as they have controlled the life of this Indonesian nation. They would do anything at all with their black power to crush anything Islamic in the country.

[They must have been disappointed that, finally, Jokowi strongly responded them by choosing the charismatic and old General Chairman of MUI or the Indonesian Ulema Council as his running mate in the event.]

According to GNPF, on top of those evil souls and black power, there are also Indonesian political characteristics with their awful self-interests.

[GNPF would have realized by now that after all Jokowi is not such a naive political leader at all, but he is, indeed, a powerful political fighter.]
