

Lombok Police Investigate Islamic Volunteers on Alleged Christianization Case

[Antonius Herujianto AH04_040918]

One Care is one of the Indonesian volunteer and humanitarian groups helping the victims of the recent earthquakes rocking Lombok Island. One of its members, Mohammad Ridlo Uddin, 38, has been summoned to come to the police office in Mataram, Lombok on Tuesday (4 September).

According to him, the police would question and investigate him and four other volunteers in dealing with a video made by Dewi Handayani, a victim of the earthquake who is also a volunteer worker.

The video deals with an event allegedly conducting Christianization during a trauma healing held on Friday (24 August) in the village of Onggong Lauk.

In the police letter No S.Pgl/562/VIII/2018/Dit dated on 31 August and signed by the police Crime Department, Grand Commissioner Adjutant Syamsudin Baharuddin, in Mataram, 31 August 2018. The report letter of the case was No. LP/78/VIII/2018/NTB/Res Lotara, dated on 26 August.

Mohammad Ridlo came to the police office accompanied by two lawyers from TPM or the Muslim Lawyers team.

Source: SKR/MAS, hidayatullah/berita/nasional/read/2018/09/04/149998/relawan-kemanusiaan-gempa-lombok-diperiksa-polda-ntb.html, "Relawan One Care Diperiksa di Polda NTB (Lombok police investigate members of volunteer and humanitarian One Care group)", in Indonesian, 04 Sept 18.

Broadcast Date/Time	Headline	Source	Status	Country	Word Count	Creating User	Date/Time Submitted
0000 GMT, 04/09/18	Lombok police investigate Islamic volunteers on alleged Christianization case [AntoniusHerujianto_AH04_040918]	SURHID	EDT	INDONESIA	209	Antonius Heru...	0442 GMT, 07/09/18	Clone