

REVIEW FORM

No	1596
Title	The Relation between Christianity and Colonialism in Ngugi Wa Thiongos The River Between
Journal
Reviewer
Date	24 August 2018

RECOMMENDATION TO EDITOR (Please Mark "✓" for Appropriate Option)

Accepted

Accepted with minor revision

Accepted with major revision

Returned for revision

Declined

✓

EVALUATION (Please tick (✓) each item based on your evaluation).

No	Items	Excellent	Good	Average	Poor
1.	General comment The article is original that shows research novelty and significant contribution to the study of language/ literature/ translation/ cultural studies. The article is written in accordance with the author guidelines and article template provided by the journal in proper written English.	✓
2.	Abstract The abstract contains a complete summary covering objectives, method, results, and conclusion. The abstract is written between 200-250 words.	✓
3.	Introduction The introduction is written in an effective, clear, and well-organized way. It has the state of the art of previous researches and shows a research gap to the present research. It clearly shows a clear contribution and difference from previous	✓

No	Items	Excellent	Good	Average	Poor
	studies. The introduction also states the objectives specifically and clearly.
4.	Methods This part shows whether the method is reproducible by other researchers. The method is described clearly and thoroughly.		✓
5.	Results and discussion The author(s) clearly show the research results and discuss them logically. The author(s) may use a table, graph, or chart in a readable way. The author(s) should relate the present results to the previous studies reviewed in the introduction part.	✓
6.	Conclusion The author(s) concludes the most important point of the research that meets the objectives. This part should not repeat the same sentences in the discussion part.	✓
7.	References All cited statements in the article are acknowledged in reference part. Every source written in the reference part must be included in the article.		✓

ADDITIONAL COMMENTS:

The topic being discussed is well addressed in the article. The post-colonial paradigm is palpable in the introductory and discussion sections. The article is highly recommended for studies in post-colonial studies, specifically in relation to Christianity.

* Please send back to: joll@usd.ac.id