

NEWS FLASH

PBI's Comedy Nights

Let's begin with this question: What is a play? As a countable noun, it is "a piece of writing performed by actors in a theatre" (Oxford Learner's Dictionary online). To celebrate the success of their hard work, PBI USD students taking the course Play Performance, which was facilitated by Ouda Teda Eda and Krisna Septa Bernanda, performed six one-act plays at the Lembaga Indonesia-Perancis (LIP) building, Sagan, Gondokusuman, Yogyakarta. The titles of the six plays were He Said She Said, Her Tongue, The Angel Intrudes, His Return, King Arthur's Socks and Sweet & Twenty. (bb)

Breaktime 2016: Vintage 1980s

TGIF? Yep, Thanks God It's Friday... Time to enjoy our weekend, time to have fun and a great time. Well, this year, PBI-ers or students of the English Language Education Study Programme of Sanata Dharma University Yogyakarta held the 2016 Breaktime, also spelled as two separate words: Break Time, at the student hall on Friday 20 November 2015. The organizing committee offered tons of music entertainment throughout the event. Various light meals or snacks were also available. Based on the online Oxford Learner's Dictionary, the adjective vintage ['vɪntɪdʒ] (Break Time 2016 theme: Vintage 1980s) means "typical of a period in the past and of high quality; the best work of the particular person" (<http://www.oxfordlearnersdictionaries.com>). (bb)

LLTC: ELT Research and Trends

The Second International Language and Language Teaching Conference (LLTC) was held in the auditorium of Sanata Dharma University, Mrican, Sleman, Yogyakarta. The main theme of the conference was English Language Teaching (ELT) in the 21st Century: Research and Trends. Prof Rod Ellis, of the University of Auckland, New Zealand, Dr Raqib Chowdhury, of Monash University, Australia, Cons Laos Mbato EdD, Sanata Dharma University, Ouda Teda Ena EdD and Barli Bram PhD were keynote and plenary speakers. The organizing committee accepted some 180 abstracts from would-be presenters representing 18 countries across the world. (bb)

Driyarkara: Music Is Energy

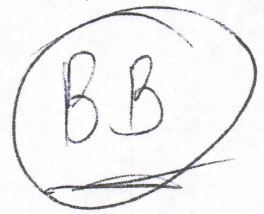

In conjunction with its 60th anniversary, Sanata Dharma University Yogyakarta held an acoustic music performance on Friday 18 December 2015 in the lobby of USD campus one, Mrican, Sleman, Yogyakarta. The event also aimed to honour the founder of Sanata Dharma, the late Father Driyarkara SJ, who once stated that "music is energy". The performers of Driyarkara Acoustics Project #1 2015 were Ayu Laksmi, Sri Krishna, Asrie Tresnady, Thambunesia, Whani Darmawan, Sadhar Jazz and Srinthil. (bb)

*Your school holds a cool event?
Send your draft to: dialoguemagz.usd@gmail.com and your story can get featured in Dialogue Magz.*

*Words & Photo: Barli Bram
Source: <https://www.usd.ac.id/fakultas/pendidikan/pbil>*

Dialogue

A Journal for English Learners

Movie Review

CIVIL WAR: Which Side are You on?

Flash Fiction

But You didn't Call

Maria Elga

The one that got x-factor

PBI Choir

Let melody become your harmony

Lingo!

6 common mistakes made by Indonesian netizens

Opinion

Parents vs. X Generation

Trivia

7 Facts about North Korea

Photo by Gustav Vilas | Cover Model: Sheila Hanneda

1/XXXVII/2016

Theme

"Ready for a Brand New You"