ABSTRAK

Perceraian menimbulkan berbagai dampak terutama bagi anak-anak yang menyaksikan langsung proses perceraian orang tuanya. Dampak yang dirasakan menimbulkan perspektif tertentu pada jalinan relasi heteroseksual di usia dewasa awal. Berdasarkan hal tersebut, penelitian ini bertujuan untuk mengetahui bagaimana individu dewasa awal yang memiliki pengalaman orang tuanya bercerai memaknai relasi heteroseksual. Penelitian ini menggunakan metode kualitatif dengan wawancara semi-terstruktur. Data yang diperoleh akan dilakukan analisis dengan pendekatan IPA (Intepretative Phenomenological Analysis). Hasil dari penelitian ini menunjukkan bahwa individu yang tidak mengalami distorsi terhadap perceraian orang tuanya, menganggap bahwa menjalani relasi heteroseksual adalah hal yang sudah seharusnya, namun individu yang mengalami distorsi akan pengalaman perceraian orang tuanya menunjukkan bahwa relasi heteroseksual tidak dapat dijalani dengan baik dan tidak ada komitmen didalamnya. Selain itu, dampak dari perceraian orang tuanya juga menyebabkan individu merasa inferior dan cemas.

ABSTRACT

Divorce has various impacts, especially for the children who witness the divorce process of their parents. Children that were affected will have a specific perspective about heterosexual relationship in their early adulthood. Based on that, this research's aims is to find how early adult individuals who experience their parents divorced interpret a heterosexual relationship. The method used in this research was a qualitative method with a semi-structured interview and the data was being analyzed with intepretative phenomenological analysis approach. The result indicate that individual who doesn't have distortion because of their parent's divorcement will view a heterosexual relationship as a normal thing to do, but individual who have distortion because of their parents divorcement will view a heterosexual relationship as a relationship that they can't be lived properly and there is no commitment Along with it. In addition, the impact of their parents divorce also shows that will cause an individuals to feel inferior and anxious.
