Umat Lingkungan St. Yohanes Selorejo menerima panggilan untuk memahami peran Ekaristi terhadap persekutuan umat. Dalam praktek kehidupan sehari-hari, umat masih kurang membangun persekutuan dikarenakan beragam kesibukan. Dalam perayaan Ekaristi, Tuhan menghendaki umat untuk tinggal bersama dalam kebersamaan. Umat menerima Tubuh dan Darah Kristus saat komuni. Semua umat dipanggil membentuk persekutuan yang direalisasikan dalam kehidupan sehari-hari. Tujuan riset ini memahami peranan Ekaristi terhadap persekutuan umat. Dalam Dokumen Lumen Gentium art. 13, Gereja merupakan persekutuan umat Allah bersifat universal. Melalui persekutuan, Gereja membuka diri dan terbuka untuk umat. Dalam Ekaristi, umat mempunyai semangat kesatuan sehingga merasakan peran Ekaristi secara nyata. Umat membangun dan memaknai persekutuan pada perayaan Ekaristi. Penelitian ini berjenis kualitatif atas peranan Ekaristi terhadap persekutuan umat Lingkungan St. Yohanes Selorejo dengan mengumpulkan data, menampilkan, dan memverifikasikannya. Sumber data penelitian adalah wawancara semi-terstruktur bersama dengan informan dan validator. Dari hasil penelitian, penulis menemukan bahwa perayaan Ekaristi mempunyai peranan terhadap persekutuan umat. Umat merasa bahwa persekutuan umat terbangun sebelum, pada saat, dan sesudah perayaan Ekaristi.

John Selorejo received a call to understand the Eucharist's role in the communion of the people. In the practice of daily life, people still lack communion due to the busyness of their communities. In celebration of the Eucharist, God wants people to live together in harmony. People receive the Body and Blood of Christ during communion. All communities are called to form alliances realized in everyday life. This research objective understands the role that the Eucharist played in the communion of the people. In the Gentiumart Lumen Document. 13, The Church is a universal association of God's people. Through communion, the Church opens up and is open to the people. In the Eucharist, people have a united spirit so that they feel the role of the Eucharist in real life. People built and used communion during the Eucharist celebrations. This study is qualitative in the role of the Eucharist in the communion of St. John Selorejo's neighborhood by collecting data, displaying, and verifying it. Research data sources are semi-structured interviews along with informants and validators. From the results of the study, the author found that Eucharistic celebrations played a role in the communion of the people. People feel that the communion of the people is awakened before, during, and after the Eucharist celebrations.
