ABSTRACTA PASTORAL ACCOMPANIMENT OF SANTA PERAWAN MARIA PARISH IN PURWOREJO TOWARD THE CHILDREN FAITH IN MIXED-MARRIAGE FAMILIES BETWEEN CATHOLICITY AND ISLAM

The undergraduate thesis would like to discuss the embrace of St. Perawan Maria parish pastoral in Purworejo toward the children's faith in the Catholic-and-Islam intermarried families. The accompaniment from the parish pastoral is able to help the children's faith in the Catholic-and-Islam intermarried families. A child who was born in a Catholic-and-Islam intermarried family does not have a place in the accompaniment so there is a need to have attention and a movement from parish pastoral to give a distinctive accompaniment to the child's faith. How is the parish pastoral accompaniment in St. Perawan Maria Purworejo towards the children's faith in the Catholic-and-Islam intermarried families? How is the parish pastoral accompaniment of St. Perawan Maria Purworejo believed to be able to help developing the children's faith in Catholic-and-Islam intermarried families? A church document, Amoris Laetitia expresses the embodiment of love and happiness in a family. The researcher did research on eight intermarried families. The researcher applied a qualitative research method and descriptive analysis design. The researcher applied the interview method to find out the information from the informants and validators with semi-structured. The research also did observation as the result of parish pastoral observation in contributing to the intermarried family. The result of this research is able to contribute to St. Perawan Maria parish pastoral to the parish pastoral accompaniment toward the children's faith in Catholic-and-Islam intermarried families. The researcher concludes that there is no maximum distinctive movement from the parish pastoral in handling various faith crises of the children in Catholic-and-Islam intermarried families. The accompaniment of the parish pastoral needs to be improved so that the children's faith in Catholic-and-Islam intermarried families can be aimed well and get more care in the embrace of Catholic Churches.
