Dengan kata lain, makin meningkatnya upaya pembangunan jemaat (OMK) dengan lima faktornya; kepemimpinan, iklim, struktur, tujuan dan identitas maka, upaya mengimplementasikan Rencana Strategis Unit Pengembangan Pastoral Kaum Muda Keuskupan Agung Semarang juga makin meningkat.

Rencana Strategis Unit Pengembangan Pastoral Kaum Muda Keuskupan Agung Semarang menjadi pendekatan dan cara yang baik dalam upaya membangun OMK makin vital demi terwujudnya Gereja yang hidup. Gereja makin hidup karena OMK makin katolik, kreatif dan kontributif. OMK berupaya mewujudkan Gereja yang hidup menurut teori pembangunan Jemaat dan Rencana Strategis Unit Pengembangan Pastoral Kaum Muda Keuskupan Agung Semarang dengan menhidupi lima faktor. Lima faktor tersebut yakni; meneladan kepemimpinan yang melayani dan menggairahkan (2) mengupayakan iklim yang positif, (3) membangun struktur komunikasi yang mendukung antar pihak yang terlibat di UPPKM KAS, (4) adanya tujuan yang jelas dan akhirnya (5) semua faktor membentuk identitas OMK sebagai murid-murid Yesus.

Abstract

This thesis analyzes the Strategic Plan for the Youth Pastoral Development Unit for the Archdiocese of Semarang according to Jan Hendriks' theory. This approach can be considered to develop more vital OMK. OMK vitality is determined based on involvement and contribution to the life of the Church and Society.

This research was conducted at the Semarang Archdiocese's Youth Pastoral Development Unit. Research using mixed methods. Data sources (participants) came from OMK who were involved in various activities at UPPKM KAS. These activities include; Basic formation, Wastupana, Tambo Jentera Muda (TJM), mentoring volunteers etc. The participants were determined by purposive sampling technique. Data was collected through questionnaires and interviews.

The research findings show that the correlation of Unit Strategic Plan for the Pastoral Development of the Youth of the Archdiocese of Semarang with the theory of congregational development by Jan Hendriks has a positive value. In other words, there are increasing efforts to build the congregation (OMK) with its five factors; leadership, climate, structure, purpose and identity. Hence, efforts to implement the Strategic Plan for the Pastoral Development Unit of the People's Semarang archdiocese's youth is also increasing.

The Strategic Plan for the Pastoral Development Unit for the Youth of the Archdiocese of Semarang is a good approach and way in an effort to make OMK more vital for the realization of a living Church. The church is becoming alive because OMK is increasingly Catholic, creative and contributive. OMK seeks to create a living Church according to the theory of Congregational development and the Semarang Archdiocese's Youth Pastoral Development Strategic Plan by supporting five factors. The five factors, namely; modeling leadership that serves and excites (2) strives for a positive climate, (3) builds a communication structure that supports, between parties involved in UPPKM KAS, (4) has clear goals and finally (5) all factors shape the identity of OMK as students. disciple of Jesus
