The title of this thesis is DESCRIPTION OF THE APPRECIATION OF CATHOLIC YOUNG PEOPLE ABOUT DEVOTION TO MOTHER MARY IN THE PARISH OF SAINT PETER AND PAUL BABADAN YOGYAKARTA. The title was chosen because the author wanted to know how the young people's appreciation of devotion to the Mother Mary in the Parish of St. Peter and Paul Babadan Yogyakarta. Devotion is a form of respect or an attitude of one's devotion directed to the saints and centered on Jesus Christ. Devotion leads a person to imitate the way of life of the saints and increasingly experience unity with Christ. In this study, it is limited to the appreciation of devotion to Mother Mary expressed in the form of Rosary Prayer and pilgrimage to the Grotto of Mary. The Rosary is a prayer of reflection on the mystery of Jesus' life while the pilgrimage to the Grotto of Mary is a form of expression of asceticism. The research was conducted in the Parish of St. Peter and Paul Babadan Yogyakarta. The type of research is qualitative. The data collection method used interviews that were validated using FGD supported by the results of open questionnaires, and document studies. The results showed that the OMK of St. Peter and Paul Parish Babadan Yogyakarta had devotion to Mother Mary in the form of praying the Rosary and pilgrimage to the Grotto of Mary based on tradition, namely in May and October, personal encouragement arises when facing life problems, praying the Rosary and pilgrimage to the Grotto of Mary provides a sense of calm, the Rosary prayer and pilgrimage to the Grotto of Mary are lived by OMK as prayers of supplication, the Rosary prayer and pilgrimage to the Grotto of Mary are properly placed as devotions and do not replace the Eucharist, and the mystery of the life of Jesus Christ contained in the Rosary prayer and pilgrimage to the Grotto of Mary has not been contemplated by OMK. The results of this study can be used as material for consideration for the parish priest together with the OMK to compile a pastoral devotion on devotion to Mother Mary which is connected to the liturgy, especially the Eucharist so as to increase the appreciation of OMK devotion.
