ABSTRACT

The title of this thesis is DESCRIPTION OF SPIRITUALITY OF THE SERVICE OF PRODIAKON in fulfilling his duties in the parish of Christ the King Baciro Yogyakarta. This title was chosen because of the role of prodiakon service in the Parish of Christ the King Baciro Yogyakarta, giving a good contribution as a layman. The existence of prodiakon helps the Church in distributing God's grace, through the main task of distributing communion to the people, and carrying out worship services as a task of proclamation. Various prodiakon services will be more alive if interpreted in the spirituality of prodiakon services. The main issue in this thesis is to find a description of the spirituality of prodiakon service in interpreting their duties in the Parish of Christ the King Baciro Yogyakarta. In response to the main discussion, the author conducted a literature study related to prodiakon service and spirituality of prodiakon parish observation to see firsthand the picture of the spirituality of prodiakon service. The author used qualitative research, namely conducting in-depth interviews with prodiakons by paying attention to the length of service. The selection of informants was based on the results of discussions with prodiakon administrators in the parish. The results showed that the prodiakon has been good in interpreting the spirituality of service that moves and animates him in carrying out his duties as a prodiakon. The spirituality of service helps prodiakons to have more faith in God which is manifested in the spirit of service, humility, readiness to give themselves, and full of joy in service. Every task is interpreted as an effort to help people live more and more in Christ.
