ABSTRACT

Dzunnuroin, M. S. (2025). “The Creative Process of Writing the Novel Tanah Lampau” [Final Project Report]. Indonesian Literature Studi Program, Faculty of Letters. Sanata Dharma University.

The Tanah Lampau novel departs from an aesthetic moment experienced by the researcher which was obtained from a comment on one of the Instagram contents related to the Lapindo mudflow. The thing raised in this novel is a social portrait related to the injustice and sadness experienced by the victims of the Lapindo mudflow disaster. The goal to be achieved is to describe the creative process in writing the Tanah Lampau novel. This study uses a descriptive method. The descriptive method is to describe the stages in the creative process of writing a novel.

There are two stages that must be passed in writing a novel, namely (1) designing the elements that build the story such as theme, message, characters, plot, setting, and point of view using the theory of writing prose and novels, (2) compiling a novel framework in the form of an outline of each sub-title of the novel. The data collection techniques used are (1) observation, namely conducting observations at the location of the Lapindo mud disaster, (2) interviews, namely interviews conducted by researchers with two sources who were victims of the Lapindo mud disaster, (3) literature studies, namely reading articles and news related to the national Lapindo mud disaster.

The creative process of writing the literary work of the Tanah Lampau novel resulted in (1) the Tanah Lampau novel which has been published with ISBN (International Standard Book Number) 978-623-360-471-0, (2) a final assignment report that describes the creative process in writing the literary work of the Tanah Lampau novel.
